6. Additional Information

_____ Respondent owns, has, and/or is known to have guns or other weapons.

Describe weapon(s) and where they may be located, if known:

In the last few months, Mr. Gelin has been harassing me. I had to open a complaint for investigation with the Florida Bar Association. He has violated my rights as a Public Servant to the courts by harassing and following me throughout the facility. His misconduct shows a pattern of bullying in which he demonstrates inappropriate behavior.

October 12, 2018 I was attending a robing for a new judge when I saw Mr. Gelin staring at me for no reason. He eventually approached me and said he had a question about a client. I told him this person needed to go downstairs to inquire about his case. He proceeded to walk towards the elevator but turned around and came back towards me with his phone up in my face stating, "I need to take a picture of you". I stated you cannot take a picture of me and I turned quickly towards the opposite direction. There were other people standing around to see Mr. Gelin's action.

Mr. Gelin stepped away on his phone and returned to say I am on the phone with the Sun Sentinel and they are doing an article on the construction of the building and he wanted to know if "Brenda" wants to make a comment. I said no, that's the county's issue. As he was standing there I ignored him after making that statement. As he was walking towards the elevator I immediately got the attention of the deputy to intervene.

On October 16, 2018 while serving the public at one of my divisions front office Mr. Gelin was being confrontational with me where the deputy sheriff had to intervene. He took out his phone making continuous efforts of unwanted contact with me. I had to say no, please stop on several occasions. The deputy standing nearby got involved asking for the guy to please walk away and leave me alone. As he ignored the deputy he continued to pursue captured photos and video footage. After multiple attempts of asking Mr. Gelin to cease unsolicited contact, I had to escape again from him into one of my divisions. I had to have an officer escort me to my vehicle later that day. I feared for my life.

On December 5, 2018 the Clerk's office was having a Driver's License clinic. Mr. Gelin came into my personal space with his camera trying to take pictures and recording me on his phone. I asked him three times to please get out my face and he refused. I got up from the lobby into my division to get away from him. Mr. Gelin has been harassing me since October 2018. There were seven witnesses plus a deputy whom witness his actions towards me today. His constant harassment towards me in my place of business has become annoying frustrating and threatening my life. I'm afraid to walk around courthouse without me looking left to right. I want to be able to work in my workplace without being harassed by any member of the public on a constant basis. Mr. Gelin has gotten into my face on several occasions trying to intimidate me and to provoke me into violence. He has no respect for anyone.
